

WARREN HILL,
EASTBOURNE.

March 2nd 1906
~~March 2nd 1906~~

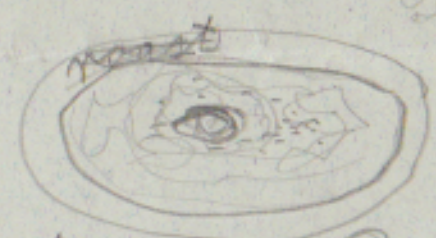

my dear Jean

I have rather a bad cold I have to be kept in bed on the hospital, but today I ~~was~~ allowed to get up. I have had it ever since the beginning of the term. The first time we played our six wone we have not played again. It is very wet to-day

May "Banhas" hast sport in hunting them may be always find plenty of them. "flee"

the round thing is the flee served up in a dish, flee in the middle

With much love from the drawer.

Menu
 roast
 flee
 with cream
 and sugar

~~notice the [scribbled out text]~~